No one can resist the smell of a BBQ and ours was no exception. The queue starts to take shape.

Now the mums started off cooking but in true Aussie style, the dads stepped in and took over. Many thanks to Peter and Hayden for a great job. But Barb and the mums were kept busy keeping everybody happy and under control, as mums do.

Merrilyn, Kaylene and Glenda wound back the clock (that’s the rock around style) and dressed for the occasion. I thought I had walked into the set of “Happy Days”. Has anyone seen the Fonz??

Our work experience student Amba, with her sister Chantelle, had this not to be missed night, set aside.

The stadium was barely recognisable after our make over team spent many hours cleaning and decorating for the big night. Many thanks to all those who contributed. A typical GSPS team effort.

It is always difficult to present to one person let alone the entire class. Here some of our senior students get the chance to show their presentation skills.
Q: SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE GEORGE STREET PRIMARY SCHOOL ??????
A: YOU CAN DEFINITELY DANCE GEORGE STREET PRIMARY SCHOOL
