From the Principal's Desk

If you have been at the school recently, you will have noticed the school grounds. We have spent many hours weeding, pruning and chopping anything that didn't look like it belonged to raise the appearance of the school. I'd like to personally thank, Max and Tracy Keen, along with Kaylene Kerr who I know spent many hours last weekend working. We are currently obtaining quotes for a makeover of our front entrance to lift its appearance.

As I've said since my appointment last year, our goal is to rebuild GSPS to its former glory. To do this we will continue to enforce our uniform policy and I ask that all parents respect this as recently I have seen a range of clothing that is not part of the uniform creep in.

To rebuild we also need to ensure that we are talking positively out in the community about the learning that is happening here. We have worked hard to build a comprehensive curriculum that has a strong focus on Literacy and Numeracy.

If there are any parents that would be interested in assisting us occasionally in maintaining our grounds, can you please pop in and let the office know. We are fortunate to have these grounds, but goodness they take some maintenance work.

Just a quick reminder that Report Writing Day for teachers is on Monday 3rd November and this will be a student free day. Please ensure you make alternative arrangements for this day.

What's happening at GSPS.

ARTIST OF THE WEEK—WEEK 3

With the weather warming up this week, students created an ice cream in art. We discussed how ice creams look, the different shapes and flavours. Well done Lincon, our Artist of the Week.

SO, WHO CAUGHT THE BIGGEST FISH?????

Was it a) Mrs Walkeden, b) Mrs Field, c) Mrs Mibus or d) Mrs Lee??

October 28th—Heath Baker
November 7th—Ebony Donhardt
November 7th—Tiffany Powell

Mrs Walkeden's class

As students continue with their Inquiry Learning work, last week they took the time to visit a local business of their choice. They spoke to business owners/managers on their sustainable process.

Here we have Nicole, Brenda and Tara with Michael from Hamilton Dry Cleaners. And Michael explains to Tara their sustainable practice.

The ladies in the Coles deli get prepared, as once again our team of Brenda, Tara, Toby & Nicole are about to unleash some hard hitting questions regarding sustainability in their workplace

Mrs Lee's class

During Aboriginal Cultural Awareness Week, my class was divided into 4 groups and used a variety of Thinking Tools to discuss and reflect on their learning over the week. Students then reported back to the class.
